GLIMPSE OF THESE PICTURES SHOWS HOW WOMEN FIGURE IN THE DAY'S NEWS

Chickens are coming into their own. "Yesterday an egg, today a hen, tomorrow a feather duster" no longer is the fowl's fate. This lucky chicken replaced a pedigreed poodle and blue blooded monkey as pet. It's a new fad started by the pretty young woman in the picture. She is Miss Louise Glaum, famed movie queen.

The second photo of that of the first all-feminine jury to try a case in New Jersey courts. They found a verdict for the plaintiff, a tailor, who sued the McCall Pattern company.

The third photo shows Gov. Cox, his wife and daughter, Mrs. Helen Cox Mahoney, campaigning on his train. His wife is standing beside "Jimmie".

Mrs. Gustav Enders, member of the ways and means committee of the Chicago G. O. P. organizations smiled as she posed for a picture in this Republican hat she designed to replace attens and banners in the campaign. It's called the elephant hat—salor modeled on French plan, and would look chic even on a Democrat. —Photos Copyrighted by Underwood & Underwood.

THREATENS FOOD WHEN MACSWINEY IS UNCONSCIOUS

Hunger-Striking Mayor Says He Will Resume Fast as Soon as Revived—Com-patriot Dies.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The announcement of the death of Fitzgerald, in Cork jail, the first of the hunger strikers to succumb, was followed by a threat to feed Terence MacSwiney as soon as he becomes unconscious. The prison physician says he feels that it is his duty to do all he can to save MacSwiney's life, and consequently he will try to feed him when he is no longer able to protest. MacSwiney, however, is quoted as saying that if this is done he will refuse food as soon as he again regains consciousness. "In his present state of extreme weakness," the bulletin says, "the lord mayor naturally feels such action of feeding him would only prolong his torture. He wishes it known, however, that he is perfectly happy. If there is any attempt to feed him while he is unconscious, he will recommence his hunger strike as soon as revived, and whether life or death for him and his comrades is the outcome of the present strike, they have won their battle, and evacuation of Ireland by the enemy will follow very soon."

EFFECT OF DEATH UPON TEN OTHERS IS FEARED

CORK, Oct. 18.—The death last night of Michael Fitzgerald, first of the 11 hunger strikers in the Cork jail to succumb to the results of their fast of more than two months, probably will have an extremely bad effect upon the other hunger strikers, according to the jail physicians today. Although the men occupy separate cells, it is difficult to keep news of what is happening from reaching them.

Joseph Murphy, Sena Hennessey and several of the other fasting prisoners are now so low that the end is expected shortly. Hennessey's father, who was visiting the prison yesterday, said he and a number of other relatives, on learning that Fitzgerald was dying, began reciting the Rosary, but that before they had finished, Fitzgerald was dead.

RECOVER STOLEN CAR.

Police Saturday night recovered a car stolen a few hours earlier from Front and Beale, where it had been parked by Clifford Davis, secretary to Mayor Paine, and Miss Carolyn Leigh, who had been attending the Orpheum theater. The car was the property of Miss Leigh. It was found at Front and Beale. No arrests were made.
